Description

Winter scarf. A winter scarf made from 100% acrylic, designed for everyday and promotional use during colder months. Thanks to its simple and classic design, it easily matches different styles and is especially suitable for completing winter sets with beanies from the same collection. It features a lightweight and soft texture (132 g), making it comfortable to wear throughout the day while still providing warmth and protection from the cold. The dimensions of 29 x 160 cm allow for various styling and wrapping options, adapting to individual preferences. The material is suitable for different printing techniques, making it an excellent choice for branding and promotional activities. The colors are coordinated with the ANDI and ANDI ROLLO beanie models, ensuring a visually consistent and professional set.
