Description

Winter cap with round patch. The winter beanie is made of 100% acrylic and is intended for everyday and promotional use. Its lightweight, comfortable structure (80 g) provides warmth and comfort on cold days. The model features a folded cuff and universal sizing, measuring 21 cm wide and 22 cm high. A sewn-on round branding patch is placed on the cuff, with a 6 cm print area circumference, allowing for easy personalization and branding. It is made in jersey knit with a double-layer construction with a cuff and a back seam, ensuring better shape retention, durability, and a comfortable fit. Within the same collection, the ALPI winter scarf is also available, made from the same material and in matching colors, allowing for a coordinated winter set for promotional and corporate needs.
